- Reciprocal rates at various golf clubs (see Pro Shop or Admin office for details)

One time Initiation Fee for Executive Member status is non-refundable and non-transferable. This is a non-equity membership.

An Executive Member or Spouse Before Y2K who cannot play unlimited golf may apply to the Board of Directors or Membership Committee to pay a retaining fee rather than full Annual Dues. Playing privileges are not included in the retaining fee, so if the member wishes to play golf, the member must pay green fees or purchase a playing package. Fees required to convert back to unlimited playing status will be on a prorated basis.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIPS:

Associate Members are Season Pass holders who do not pay an Initiation Fee, and therefore are not permitted to vote or to hold any OGC office. Play may be limited.

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Defined as a membership purchased by a Corporation. Annual sponsorship of the OGC is inherent in the purchase of a Corporate Season Pass. Current Executive members may transfer to Corporate Membership, without any refund of Initiation Fees, and will be subject to all conditions of Corporate Members. Members are not eligible for private cart, trackage or storage. More information is available upon request.

2020 INTERMEDIATE MEMBERSHIP

Designed for an individual between 19 and 39 years old wanting to maximize use of the facilities on an annual basis. Annual membership dues include:

- Playing privileges on two 18-hole championship courses
- Use of driving range and grass short game practice facilities
- 6 day advance booking privileges on either course
- Must pay Annual Dues as set by the Board
- The Pro Shop may restrict time and rounds played
- No voting rights or eligibility to hold Club office

There is no requirement to pay an Initiation Fee until the year of the member's 40th birthday. After the 40th birthday, the individual will either pay the Initiation Fee or purchase a playing pass or green fees. Upon payment of the Initiation Fee, the membership will become Executive.

2020 JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP

Designed for an individual between 12 and 19 years old whose parent or guardian makes application in the prescribed form. The Pro Shop or Junior Coordinator must recommend acceptance. There is no requirement to pay an Initiation Fee. Annual membership dues include:

2020 JUNIOR UNDER SUPERVISION MEMBERSHIP

Designed for an individual between 6 and 14 years old whose parents or guardians make application in the prescribed form. There is no requirement to pay an Initiation Fee. Based on age and assessed maturity the Pro Shop or Junior Coordinator will determine whether the member will play under supervision or as a Junior. The member must be accompanied by an adult golfer. A maximum of two Juniors under Supervision may play in a group. Annual membership dues include:

- Use of driving range and grass short game practice facilities
- The Pro Shop shall govern tee times and may restrict play
- Release form of liability to be signed by parent/guardian prior to approval of application
- No voting rights or eligibility to hold Club office

2020 JUNIOR UNDER SUPERVISION - Seasonal

Designed for an individual between the ages of 6 and 14 whose parents or guardians make application in the prescribed form. Based on age and assessed maturity, the Pro Shop or Junior Coordinator will determine whether the member will play under supervision or as a Junior. The member must be accompanied by an adult golfer. A maximum of two Juniors under Supervision may play in a group. The Pro Shop may restrict time and play.

The member may be either a local or summer resident. The term of the membership will be from 1 July - 31 August. No Initiation Fee is required and the Seasonal Fee will be determined by the Board.

2020 TEMPORARY RESIDENT / PGA MEMBER

Temporary residents must produce a company letter outlining the nature of their employment and the expected duration of residence in the Osoyoos region. PGA members must annually produce a current PGA membership card, validated as a member in good standing of their association. The Board may restrict the duration of this membership. Members are not eligible for private cart, trackage or storage. Annual membership dues include:
